Employment

LUMSDEN HOTEL—Wanted. Dependable, motivated people to work in various capacities part time at the Lumsden Hotel. Must be able to work nights and weekends. Full training given. Call Janel 022 070 8616

WE ARE CURRENTLY RECRUITING A ROLE LOCAL TO LUMSDEN FOR THE SOUTHLAND DISTRICT COUNCIL Are you a Lumsden local? We have an opportunity for a Committee Advisor / Customer Support Partner to join our Governance Team and provide best practice advice and administrative services to elected members and staff on governance matters. An all round superstar you will also undertake customer service duties from our Lumsden office and library. This role will give you the opportunity to provide advice to elected members and staff on meeting procedures and legislative requirements, taking meeting minutes at board level, quality assurance across general administrative tasks related to the role and being a go to member of the team for customer queries with both internal and external stakeholders. This varied role also involves providing superior customer support to ratepayers, residents and visitors to the Lumsden office and library, assisting with everything from dog registrations to recommending the next great read! This is a part time role (3 days/18 hours per week) based at our Lumsden office and library. So ideal for someone who is already part of our Northern Southland community. It is likely the successful candidate will have to undertake some training in Invercargill in their first weeks in the role. To be successful in this role your skillset will include: Customer centric with a passion for best practice service delivery. Excellent written and verbal communications skills. Strong in the Microsoft Office suite of programmes. Self-motivated, organised and with a high attention to detail. Solutions focused with excellent stakeholder management skills. Visit our careers page for further information on this opportunity <https://southlanddc.qjumpersjobs.co/> Applications close Monday 17th August 2022.
